My sister Addie is my best friend. She is seven years old and in the 2nd grade. She likes to watch football, softball, basketball, and gymnastics. She likes to watch me play video games. My sister and I like to swim at the beach. We also like to go fishing. My sister and I like to eat steak and cheeseburgers.

I have the best sister ever!

I have a brother named Camden. He has glasses because he can't see well without them. Camden likes to play video games on the Nintendo Switch. Camden writes right-handed. His favorite food is pizza. He mostly wears tennis shoes, more than Crocs. Camden's favorite subject is art. He is two years older than me. His birthday is in the summer. Camden doesn't like to read books. I like to play games with him.

When I was six years old, I put a baby sister on the top of my Christmas list. Little did I know on November 14th, she would be here. Her name is Ilana June. She was named after my great grandmother. When she was born, she was put into the NICU; therefore, I was not able to see her for about a week, but that didn't stop me from having my parents and grandparents share pictures! When I was finally able to see her, I could not control my excitement. I was so happy that I was now a big sister to two younger siblings! Now, at five years old, my sister is a great paragon of the cutest, sweetest, rambunctious little girl I have ever seen. I cannot wait to see where life will take us together!

Today was my brother's first day of school. He and I fight a lot.

Brothers can be nice to each other. If my brother needs help cleaning up his room, he asks me. I am always glad to help. If my brother needs help making up his bed, he asks me. If my brother needs help carrying stuff, he asks me. I can help him.

We always help each other.

My older sister is mean. She is eleven years old, way older than me. She has blonde hair and blue eyes, like me. Her name is Cadence. She is taller than me. She is mean to me, but I still love her.

I'm very glad she's my sister!

Christian Young, 4th, Miller Perry Elementary, Ms. Jeffers

I have one brother. His name is Maddox, Max for short! He is just ten months old because he is a baby. His birthday is coming up on October 25th. He likes drooling a lot. I know why, it's because he is teething, and he has four teeth already. He is really fun to play with, but he is kind of annoying because he screams, cries, and climbs all over me. We play outside together. We play ball and we also play catch the monster. It is really fun to play! He is fussy because he doesn't want to get in his car seat.

I wanted to be the only one, but he came along and he does keep me company when I'm scared or when I'm bored. I'm so, so, so, so happy he joined our family because Maddox is the best little brother anybody could have! I will always love my baby brother forever and ever and for all my life because he's so cute and adorable.

Natalie Hoilman, 2nd, Rock Springs Elementary, Mrs. Charlton

My brother's name is Weston. My sister's name is Rhyann. We like to play with our goat together.

Parker Robertson, 2nd, Nickelsville Elementary, Mrs. Gilmer

My sister's name is Cari. She is the chorus teacher at Lee High. Sometimes on the weekend, she'll start randomly singing and it kind of gets on my nerves, but I still like it. She always takes me places like the store, a restaurant, or Kingsport. When we go places we have a lot of fun. My sister is allergic to cats and I have seven cats. So when my mom lets them come upstairs, they always tackle her and she sneezes like crazy. It's really funny.

KK Belcher, 7th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Brooks

Here are some things about my brother. He and I share a birthday with my dad. He watches me play Fortnite. I like to play with him, too.

That is about my brother.

Logan Belanger, 4th, Mount Carmel Elementary, Mrs. Mowell

My brother is my dog. My dog is cute because he sits in my lap. His name is Copper. He is really funny. We feed Copper peanut butter and hotdogs. Copper is my little helper because he helps me find birds.

Rhiley Ball, 2nd, Hilton Elementary, Mrs. Edwards

I have an older brother and his name is Shayden. He is a nice brother to me. We have fun together. He takes me to school every morning. He takes just the two of us to eat sometimes. We play games with each other. He is the best brother I could ask for.

Thank you for all that you do for me, Shayden.

Gaige Crawford, 4th, Mount Carmel Elementary, Mrs. Morelock

I have FOUR siblings. It's truthfully amazing how much love we share. We have a tremendous amount of fun together as if we are best friends. We have each other's backs through thick and thin. We've all been through a lot. Our relationship has been tested, as if on a court trial. As a family we love each other. As friends we love each other a lot more.

My parents have done a fantastic job raising us to use respect. We have been through a lot and have more to come. As our family drives through life like a semi on the highway - we love each other.

Austin Bates, 8th, Surgoinsville Middle, Mrs. Hensley

I have a little brother who was born on December 18, 2014 at 8:45 pm. He is three years old and he will soon be four. My brother's name is Graham. He likes tractors and trucks. He likes to ride four-wheelers and he likes to ride the tractor. Sometimes he will lie around and watch YouTube on my mom's phone. He can be mean sometimes but I still love him.

Brayden Grubbs, 2nd, Rock Springs Elementary, Dr. Adler

My cousin has been like a brother to me. I think he is twelve. He has short hair and likes motorcycles.

He sold his Legos for a motorcycle. His sister is older than him, I think fourteen. I get along just fine with them. They get along just nicely with each other. It is so fun to be with them.

Titus Hobbs, 4th, Miller Perry Elementary, Ms. Jeffers

I am going to write about my sister Kasey. I love my sister. We ride bikes together and play outside. My sister dresses like a monkey. She does not know what matches. She is crazy. My family and I went to the river to fish; but she played like her kayak was her horse. She has the biggest imagination.

Mikah Woliver, 6th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Jones

My sister, Kristen is the best sister anyone could ever wish for. We might get in a lot of fights and arguments, but I couldn't wish for a better sister. Soon, I'll be an aunt! Kristen is having a baby boy in a few more months. I'm very excited to be an aunt!

Allison Standifer, 7th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Brooks

My sister is so sneaky but sometimes she gets caught. She is four years old. Her name is Emma. She is so funny. My sister has very pretty blue eyes. She has short legs. She loves scary stuff, I do not know why. She has a lot of dolls. She always goes in my room because she misses me when I am at school and I miss her, too. I love my sister Emma.
