

What superpower would you like to have?

One superpower I would like is teleportation. I would like to have this superpower because I would never have to walk anywhere again! I think that teleportation could make life easier because you would never have to wait in a line ever again! This superpower can help you travel the WORLD with no cost. This is why I would like to have teleportation.

Raleigh Williams, 5th, Pennington Middle, Ms. Hounshell

The super power I would like to have is to be indestructible. The reason I want to be indestructible is because if someone hits me then it may hurt for a little bit, but it will finally go away. Also, I can say I'm okay. Do want to be indestructible someday or not?

Ashton Arnold, 4th, Mount Carmel Elementary, Mrs. Morelock

If I had a superpower I would control the weather. I would know what the weather is. I like when it's winter and when it is summer. I also like fall because it is when I have my birthday. That is why I want to have a superpower of controlling the weather.

Lacy Leonard, 2nd, Rock Springs Elementary, Dr. Adler

ANY superpower?! I wish I could be a teleporter. Why? Well, think about being able to travel ANYWHERE at ANY time you desire; you could do just about anything. There's an emergency - just teleport. POOF! You're out within a second or two. There are so many benefits to this because you can arrive anywhere at any time. You could prevent an accident, save lives, etc. What a great superpower!

Katherine Fierros, 8th, Surgoinsville Middle, Mrs. Hensley

If I had a superpower, it would be to shoot glitter at the bad guys' eyes. I would also build a big enough glitter ball to knock them down. I would also build a big string and tie them up. I hope to have a superpower one day.

Isabella McMurray, 2nd, Hilton Elementary, Mrs. Edwards

If I had a super power, I would like to be a helpful person. I hate to see people in pain and sick.

Meadow McConnell, 2nd, Nickelsville Elementary, Mrs. Gilmer

My super power would be the ability to clone myself. I would use it on my friends so I don't have to listen to their boring conversations. I would use it to get out of class. I would have an infinite amount of clones. I would think really hard and a clone would just pop up. That is the power I would choose because of how much I could do.

Wesley Honeycutt, 6th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Jones

I would want the superpower of when you say something then you snap your fingers, you would get it. If I wanted a million dollars I would get it. If I wanted a puppy I would get it. If someone was in a fight I would snap my fingers then it would stop. Also, if there was a bunch of trash I could snap my fingers and then it would be gone. I really wish I had that superpower but I don't. I still hope I can change the world one day.

Lily Egbert, 4th, Miller Perry Elementary, Ms. Jeffers

For my superpower I would like to have x-ray vision. Why? Because I would help people like doctors look inside people so they can see what's wrong. Another reason is to look inside my birthday present. Then, I would look through envelopes to see what's inside! That is why my superpower would be x-ray vision!

Timber McLain, 4th, Mount Carmel Elementary, Mrs. Mowell

I would turn Ms. Howe and me into princesses.

Shelby Balthis, Kindergarten, Hilton Elementary, Ms. Howe

If I could have any superpower it would be to stop bullying because if someone gets bullied their feelings get hurt. I want to teach the bullies to stop bullying.

Bryce Swisher, 4th, Nickelsville Elementary, Mrs. Finch

I would like to have night vision; once I was all alone outside hunting in the dark which isn't scary until you hear something out of the ordinary. You look around and find nothing, but you can feel you're being watched from left to right. I would like to have night vision because I would be able to see everything in the big, deep, dark world. I aspire to be this superhero because it would help in many ways.

Madison Allen, 8th, Surgoinsville Middle, Mrs. Hensley

My superpower would be ice because if I had ice, I could freeze everything. I could freeze people so they can't get in. I can freeze people so they can't fight back. I could freeze them to the wall. I can freeze their weapons. If they have a car I can freeze it, too.

Henry Lewis, 2nd, Rock Springs Elementary, Mrs. Charlton

If I had one superpower it would be...flying. I would save people's lives. I would save people when they need it. I would do it fast, too. I would help police officers by chasing bad people. I would save people in burning buildings. It would be fun, too! That's why I would like to be able to fly.

Connor Bennett, 4th, Miller Perry Elementary, Ms. Jeffers

If I had a superpower, it would be mind control.

I was in my lab studying about the brain and mixing stuff when something happened. I thought I had everything right, when I added an ounce of water. There was a big explosion and I was knocked out. I noticed something wasn't right. When I was thinking, things started moving around the room and me. I started thinking of other things I could do with my mind. I could now use my mind in a positive way. I would mind control robbers and stuff. I would tell them to do right, go to the police, and make better choices.

Tony Bullock, 3rd, Mount Carmel Elementary, Ms. McCann

If I had any superpower it would be the ability to fly. So if a building was on fire and someone was in the building, I could fly to the window and get them. I could save people in North Carolina where Hurricane Florence is and bring them to a safer place. I could also fly to the beach and take my family with me. Flying would be the greatest superpower!

Madison Harrison, 5th, Shoemaker Elementary, Ms. Garrett

What would be a cool superpower? Sure, being able to fly or turn invisible are some really amazing powers, but what about being able to bring anything you want to life? Imagine you're reading a book about science fiction and this kid finds an alien blob. All you have to do is think about it and it comes to life. Anything and everything you want, you can have—just think!

Payton Eldridge, 7th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Brooks

I'd have laser vision like Superman.

Timothy Nelson, Kindergarten, Hilton Elementary, Ms. Howe

If I had a super power, I would like to run fast. I would be the first one to be done with my laps in gym.

Khylin Barber, 2nd, Nickelsville Elementary, Mrs. Gilmer

If I had a superpower I would want to fly. I want to fly because I want to do flips in the air. It would be so cool to feel that breeze. Swoosh! It's a bird! It's a plane! It's me! That is why I want my superpower to be the ability to fly.

Lucas Lyons, 2nd, Rock Springs Elementary, Dr. Adler

If I could have a superpower, it would be to change into different animals. That way, if I needed to blend in I could. That is what superpower I would like to have.

Aubrey Collins, 5th, Nickelsville Elementary, Mrs. Finch

If I had a power it would be to change time. I could change the bad things that happened in the past. I could rewind time when something bad is about to happen. I could stop time and stop what is about to happen. I could protect everyone from danger.

The last thing is I could save every president.

Jessee Musick, 5th, Pennington Middle, Ms. Hounshell

If I had a superpower it would be telekinesis. I could lift cars out of trees. I can stop robbers from robbing banks. I can lift objects that can be a threat to people. I can make the world a better place.

Logan Lester, 5th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Austin
