

If you held a world record, what would it be?

“Whoa,” my class bellowed when I sped past them. I want to hold the world record for the fastest sprinter in the world. I am so fast because I run outside every day. I am so fast I started a commotion in the town. If anyone tries to break my world record I will race them. I am the world’s fastest sprinter because I run outside. I could run around town easily being the fastest, and I can beat anybody in a race.

Owen Jessee, 3rd, Hilton Elementary, Mrs. Crawford

My world record would be holding a high note the longest. Ever since I was five years old I’ve loved to sing. My voice has always sounded like a country girl’s voice. If I was a famous singer I’d keep beating my world record to the next level note to sing. I feel like I’m capable of holding this world record.

Tawni Toney, 5th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Austin

If I held a world record, it would be for catching the biggest fish. I like to go fishing. That is why I picked fishing for my world record.

Isaiah Fields, 1st, Hilton Elementary, Mrs. Light

If I held a world record, it would be the most helpful person in the world. I would save all the babies on the Titanic.

Isaac Dockery, 2nd, Nickelsville Elementary, Ms. Gilmer

If I held a world record it would be the most robots dancing at once. It would be loud. You would hear a lot of mechanical movement. You’d need a team of people. I would just say its name and then say DANCE! Just like that, over one million robots would dance at one time.

Jack Litton, 4th, Miller Perry, Ms. Jeffers

I’d hold the world record in playing.

Eli Vermillion, Kindergarten, Hilton Elementary, Ms. Howe

If I held a world record it would be the best hind catcher. If you don’t know what a hind catcher is, it’s a catcher that bends down behind home plate. The bad part about being a hind catcher is the equipment that you have to wear. It gets so hot, especially when it’s one hundred degrees. Another hard part is the older you get, the older age group you get in, and the faster the pitcher gets. This is the world record that I think I would hold.

Jayden Ford, 5th, Shoemaker Elementary, Ms. Garrett

If I held a world record it would be for having the longest jump. My legs are strong. That is why I picked jumping for my world record.

Ellie Duncan, 1st, Hilton Elementary, Mrs. Light

If I could hold a world record, then it would have to be something about soccer. I love soccer; it’s one of my attributes, and that’s what I would want my world record to be based around. After searching through my brain for a bizarre idea pertaining to soccer, I finally thought of something - most soccer juggles in world history! I would love to be able to juggle a soccer ball that well. It would be amazing to have tons of people watch me flip a ball over my head and keep juggling on for just about forever. I would love this ability, and I aspire to get better at my soccer juggling.

Andrew Dickerson, 8th, Surgoinsville Middle, Mrs. Hensley

If I had a world record it would be to run the fastest in the world. I could go anywhere, and at any time. If my family needed me I would be there in a flash. I could always be on time too. It would be so cool. Maybe even be fun. So I think it would be amazing to break the world record of running the fastest in the world.

Abigail Berry, 4th, Miller Perry Elementary, Ms. Jeffers

If I held a world record, it would be shooting the longest archery/bow shot. I think this would be cool because it would be a hard, yet rewarding accomplishment.

JD Odle, 7th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Brooks

If I held a world record, it would be for talking. Sometimes my dad gets annoyed because I talk so much. I bet my teachers and my family would agree. I have been a talker since I was a baby. It does not matter who they are, I will talk to them. Maybe one day I will run out of something to say but I doubt it. I talk over everyone in this class.

I know I talk a lot, but it’s okay sometimes.

Ayden Seaver, 5th, Shoemaker Elementary, Ms. Garrett

If I could hold one world record it would be to write the longest and funniest book in the world.

I love to write. My main purpose to write is to entertain people. The book I would write would be about a dog that runs for President of the United States. It would be so funny you would have to get a doctor to calm you down. Maybe the doctor couldn’t calm you down because it would be so funny. That is the world record that I would like to hold.

Gracie Stiltner, 4th, Miller Perry, Ms. Jeffers

If I held a record it would be the farthest football pass. You have to be strong though. Also it takes a lot of practice.

Daniel Sprinkle, 6th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Jones

If I held a world record, it would be for having the most deer heads in my basement. There are over 100 deer heads in my basement from the past years. Most of them are my Dad’s but around 20 of them are mine. I’m really proud of my Dad and myself for all the time and effort we have put into the sport of hunting.

Cole Evans, 8th, Surgoinsville Middle, Mrs. Hensley

If I held a world record, it would be to hold a handstand for two hours. It would be cool to hold a handstand this long. I would get people to get me food. I would do handstands all over the world. I hope I can accomplish this one day.

Hailey Hagy, 2nd, Hilton Elementary, Mrs. Edwards

If I held a world record, it would be the best swimmer in the world. I would be good at swimming underwater at 10,000 feet!

Rylan Edwards, 2nd, Nickelsville Elementary, Ms. Gilmer

If I held a world record it would be the most shrimp consumed by a human within a minute. Shrimp is my favorite food, especially garlic grilled shrimp. Every year, on the Fourth of July, my uncle grills shrimp and it is the best. I look forward to the Fourth every year because of that.

Nicholas Kimberlin, 7th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Brooks

I’d hold the world record in break dancing.
Madelyne Hinkle, Kindergarten, Hilton Elementary, Ms. Howe

If I could hold a world record, it would be the longest run for cake. I just think it would be funny to hear about someone running over 1,000 miles for cake. However, the cake would have to be a mango flavored cake with chocolate icing and rainbow sprinkles. No one has ever run a distance for cake. So, how’s that for a world record?!

Dante Lubecke, 4th, Miller Perry, Ms. Jeffers

I would hold a record for being the world’s clumsiest person ever. I fall, trip, run into walls, and fall upstairs. I can just imagine in the book of 2018, Grier Crabtree - the World’s Clumsiest Person Ever.

Grier Crabtree, 6th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Jones

If I held a world record it would be slowest and smallest person because I am the slowest in gym in sprinting and smallest because I can fit under tables (and not get trampled). I’m also the slowest only when I’m sad or I’m not hyper from eating candy. That’s the award I would have.

Piper Linton, 5th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Austin

If I held a world record, it would be a basketball shot. It would be a 1,000-pointer in my backyard to my nana’s house. I would get $10,000. I’ll get cheers from my family. I will do it again 1,000 times.

Bryson Hughes, 2nd, Hilton Elementary, Mrs. Edwards

If I could hold any world record it would be having the most rushing yards in football. I would hold this record for my country and be proud of it. I love football because on defense I like going after the other team and trying to tackle them.

On offense, I like to carry the ball and score touchdowns. This is the world record I would hold.

Nathaniel Gilliam, 5th, Shoemaker Elementary, Ms. Garrett
