

What is the last kind thing you did for someone?

Kindness. Kindness fuels all of the world's grace. Now let me elaborate. As time passes and everything evolves and grows, I feel as if simple, kind, acts are put to the side and not thought of anymore. People think of themselves first and don't care for the feelings of others. Not to gloat, but the other day I returned a portion of cash to my teacher who dropped it. Now even if I didn't know it belonged to him, I still would have returned it to the school office; my conscience wouldn't have let me live if I would have taken the money for myself. Now I am not a saint or even close to such, but I did that because if that was my money lost, I would have freaked out. This also makes you seem more credible to others which is also good. So next time you find some lost money, or anything that belongs to others, turn it in to the lost and found.

Addison Wright, 8th, Surgoinsville Middle, Mrs. Hensley

The last time I did something kind was for my mom. I painted signs for my mom. I painted quietly so my mom could work. That was the last time I did something kind for someone.

Harrison Crawford, 1st, Hilton Elementary, Mrs. Light

I cooked for my mom and dad. I made eggs, toast, and bacon. They said they liked it.

Kasey Berry, 6th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Jones

The last kind thing I did was help Berkley down the steps because her foot is broken. I asked her if she needed help and she said yes. I know how hard it is to go down the steps with crutches because my mom has had to use them before.

Savannah Peaks, 7th, Holston Valley Middle, Mrs. Taylor

The last kind thing I did was help my friend Elijah pick peppers. We were helping his grandpa by picking peppers before they all rotted or an animal got them.

I felt good when I helped Elijah's grandpa.

Brecken Nimety, 5th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Austin

The last kind thing I did for someone was help my mom make a cake. She was kind of confused on how to make a cake and it made me laugh so hard. She asked me to help so I helped her. I did this when it was Kevin's birthday and my mom wanted to make a cake for him. The cake turned out to be amazing. Kevin liked it a lot and so did the other people. It made my mom smile.

That was the last kind thing I did for someone.

Danny Tran, 4th, Miller Perry Elementary, Ms. Jeffers

The last kind thing I did for someone was cleaning up at snack. I helped pick up trash on the tables.

Natalie Culbertson, 2nd, Nickelsville Elementary, Mrs. Gilmer

I help my family.

Owen Lane, Kindergarten, Hilton Elementary, Ms. Howe

The last kind thing I did was when I went to a nursing home. I spent about two hours doing activities with them. We brought them cupcakes and pizza. Then we played bingo. We gave them small prizes like hats, stuffed animals, coloring books, and so much more. Going to visit all of the people at nursing homes is one of my favorite things to do.

Bella Rouse, 7th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Brooks

The last thing I did for my dad was write and draw him a note. The reason I do that is because I miss and love him. I send him notes because I want him and me to be happy. We are family. I will do everything for him in my life. I drew him a rainbow and a tiger. That is the last thing I've done for him.

Anna Brinegar, 2nd, Hilton Elementary, Mrs. Edwards

So, do you want to know what last kind thing I did? Well, I'll tell you. I came to this wonderful school and I wanted to make some friends. I met a girl and her name is Autumn. She is a wonderful friend, but she's not my only friend. I have other friends, too. I allow anyone to be my friend depending on if they are mean or not. But anyone who has asked to be my friend so far, I've said yes. And I don't find anyone mean in this school. I love all the friends I've made. They're all so friendly. Well, that's the last kind thing I did!

Hayden Contway, 4th, Mount Carmel Elementary, Ms. Tipton

I help Ms. Howe clean the room.

Emmaline Bruner, Kindergarten, Hilton Elementary, Ms. Howe

The last kind thing I did for someone was make lunch for my brother. I just thought that I should be nice to my brother at least once. My brother can be annoying. That is the last nice thing I have done for someone.

Christian Lee, 4th, Miller Perry Elementary, Ms. Jeffers

The last time I did something kind was for my mom. I helped my mom clean house. She wants me to clean my room and pick up my toys. Then, my mom and I got the mop and cleaned the bathroom floor. She was glad that I helped her mop. That was the last time I did something kind for someone.

Nevaeh Lane, 1st, Hilton Elementary, Mrs. Light

The last kind thing I did wasn't a big thing like donating a million dollars to a charity or going across the world to help homeless children. However, I believe small things like picking up a piece of trash or helping someone pick up their papers they dropped makes the world a better place to live. The last act of kindness I did was hold the door for my class. This wasn't a big deal; however, it was still an act of kindness. "An act of kindness, no matter how small, is never wasted," Aesop.

Brianna Eaton, 8th, Surgoinsville Middle, Mrs. Hensley

The last kind thing I did for someone was helping my friends up. I like my friends.

Avie McDavid, 2nd, Nickelsville Elementary, Mrs. Gilmer

The last kind thing I did for someone was when I cleaned the dishes for my mom. It was hard work! My mom did a good thing for me, too. After that I cleaned our house for my mom, and it took an hour for me to clean the whole house. After cleaning, I took a long nap.

Isabella Luckett, 2nd, Rock Springs Elementary, Mrs. Charlton

The last kind thing I did for someone would be pumping gas for my grandpa and going in and paying for it. It is hard for him to walk, so I always pump gas for my grandfather.

Clayton Carr, 7th, Holston Valley Middle, Mrs. Taylor

The last act of kindness I did was at my church. There was a girl who was getting bullied. I didn't want her feelings to be hurt or let her get hurt so I went and got an adult. He had the boys who were bullying her to go home. She wasn't getting bullied anymore and she was much happier! I'm really glad that I did that because I don't want to see her sad. It makes me so happy that she's happy! I think that bullying should stop!

Lily Egbert, 4th, Miller Perry Elementary, Ms. Jeffers

The last thing I did for someone is give them money for snack. They were really hot and needed a drink. I gave them two dollars to get a drink and a snack.

Cayden Brock, 6th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Jones

The last kind thing I did for someone was for my dad. I got to vacuum the house and clean the laundry room so my dad could get in there.

Rebecca Harkleroad, 2nd, Rock Springs Elementary, Mrs. Charlton

The last kind thing I did was help with the food ministry. I put food in boxes for needy families.

Hunter Collins, 7th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Brooks

The last kind thing I did for someone was sit next to a girl that was all alone on the bus. She is now my best friend all because I sat next to her on the bus. She was all alone so I felt badly for her. When I sat next to her it made me feel very good and kind.

Olivia Mitchell, 5th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Austin

The last thing I did for my grandparents was get their mail. I like getting their mail because it helps them. They love when I get their mail because they get to see me. Seeing me makes them happy. One more reason I like to get their mail is because it's good exercise. That is why I like to get their mail.

Trevor Light, 2nd, Hilton Elementary, Mrs. Edwards

The last kind thing I did for someone is help my friend with math homework. Math can be pretty tricky sometimes.

Ocianna Church, 7th, Holston Valley Middle, Mrs. Taylor
