

If you could give your parents any gift, what would it be?

If I gave my parents something I would give them a day out to themselves, because my parents always give me the things I need and even things I want.

I think it will be nice for my parents also because there are four kids in my house. I think it will be nice to give my parents a day to themselves.

Julia Britton, 5th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Austin

If I could get my mom and dad a gift, I would gift my mom some jewelry because she really likes it. I would get dad socks because his feet get cold, brr... That's what I would get my mom and dad.

If I could give my parents any gift, it would be season tickets to Tennessee Volunteer football games. The thrill of sitting in Neyland Stadium with my parents would be something I would cherish forever. Cheering on the Vols for scoring a touchdown or committing a turnover on defense. Inevitably it would be a great gift to give the greatest parents I could ever ask for. I love my parents so much, and they do a lot for me. They are like my teddy bear that hugs me after I have a nightmare. They keep me and my sister out of the cold and food in our bellies. They are great to me, and they deserve a lot of things from me and my sister. My parents are the greatest gift I could ever ask for.

Luke Rimer, 8th, Surgoinsville Middle, Mrs. Hensley

The gift I would give my parents would be a trip. Then they could have some peace and quiet. They can go bowling. I would be the favorite kid in the family.

Dakota Rogers, 6th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Jones

If I was able to give any gift to my mom and dad, I would give a bought gift, a made gift, and an act of kindness. The two gifts I would buy would be two packs of tools for my dad and a new laptop for my mom. The gifts I would make would be two cards; one for my mom and one for my dad. The two acts of kindness would be I would help my dad fix something and walk my dog Missy for my mom. I love my parents dearly, so I would try to get them each something that would make them happy.

Sarah Hilton, 4th, Miller Perry Elementary, Ms. Jeffers

If I could give my parents any gift, it would be a Lamborghini. My parents are so slow. Maybe this will make them go faster.

Caleb Reed, 2nd, Nickelsville Elementary, Mrs. Gilmer

If I could give my parents any gift, it would be a trip to Survivor because they watch it every Wednesday. It is their favorite. Plus I would give them a trip to Hawaii.

Sadie Evans, 6th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Jones

If I could pick a gift for Christmas it would be a gift for my parents. I would get my dad a robot vacuum.

He has a big mess downstairs. I would get my mom a new jewelry box. Mom needs a jewelry box because she loses them all the time. These are the gifts that I would get for my parents for Christmas.

Emmy Horton, 1st, Hilton Elementary, Mrs. Light

If I could give my parents a gift it would be time with the family. I would give them time with the family because they just want time with my sister and me. That would mean more than a present under a tree because they love us more than a present. I think when my sister and I give our parents the gift, they'll love it.

Zach Lane, 5th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Austin

If I could get my mom and dad any gift, what would it be? I would probably get dad a picture of him and me on my first Christmas. That would make him very happy. I would get mom a necklace and a ring. The necklace would have beads and the ring would have a diamond in the middle of it. I think my parents would enjoy these gifts.

Kaden Houseright, 5th, Shoemaker Elementary, Ms. Garrett

If I could give my parents any gift, it would be the Titanic. My mom and dad love stuff about the Titanic.

Isaac Dockery, 2nd, Nickelsville Elementary, Mrs. Gilmer

If I could get a gift for my parents it would be garden gnomes. They would look pretty. I would give my dad a male and my mom a female. That would look nice. I think it would make my parents feel happy.

I think this would be a nice gift.

Hunter Salyer, 2nd, Hilton Elementary, Mrs. Edwards

I would give my parents a cat. They would say, "Thank you so much. I appreciate it so much." They would hug me until I said, "You're welcome!" I would give them an orange cat and it would be a boy. This is why I would give them a cat.

Shaylan Mitchell, 2nd, Rock Springs Elementary, Dr. Adler

If I could pick a gift for my parents, it would be for relaxing. My mom's gift would be a vacation. She works hard. I would give my daddy a pool. He is always hot. These are the gifts I would get my parents for Christmas.

Kyla Young, 1st, Hilton Elementary, Mrs. Light

If I could, I would make my mom feel better and not be sick. It is rough sometimes because she always has to go to the doctor. I barely get to see her because of school or she is gone or I'm gone. In addition, the most real thing I would give to my parents is a new car. It will be a van because that's what they want. I would also give them a lot more—those are just the two most important things.

Mason Stevens, 7th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Brooks

Would you buy your parents a present? For homemade, I would make my mom a mason jar with a picture of my brother and me inside it. For my dad I would make him a bracelet saying, "Duck Hunter" because he likes to hunt ducks. From the store, I would buy my dad slippers and my mom a robe because she always steals mine. That is what I would buy my parents. What would you buy your parents?

Yazmina Good, 4th, Miller Perry Elementary, Ms. Jeffers

If you could give your parents any gift, what would it be? If I could give my parents any gift, I would give my mom the power of healing. My mom has a HUGE heart problem. She has a seizure almost every time her mood changes. She needs the power of healing because she is not strong enough to fight the battle by herself. Life is coming to the end of the yellow brick road a little too fast for her to adapt. I know that in the end of all of it, her suffering will all come to a halt.

Izaiah Hoe, 8th, Surgoinsville Middle, Mrs. Hensley

If I could give my parents any gift, it would be breakfast in bed. They are so nice to me.

Rylan Edwards, 2nd, Nickelsville Elementary, Mrs. Gilmer

I would give them cookies and a truck. I would give a truck because my dad likes trucks. Cookies because my mom likes cookies. I will put the cookies in the truck. These are things I could do.

Natalie Garcia, 2nd, Rock Springs Elementary, Dr. Adler

If I could give my parents a gift, it would be new kitchen supplies because my parents love being in the kitchen cooking all the time. My dad actually wants to cook for a living but doesn't because it is too much of a risk. My mom just loves to bake and does whenever she has time, supplies, and ingredients.

Emma Fortner, 7th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Brooks

If I could give my mom a gift, I would buy a book. My mom loves to read books and I know what book to give her. My mom loves to read Harry Potter so I went to the library and got Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone. This is what I would get for my mom.

James Osborne, 2nd, Hilton Elementary, Mrs. Edwards

I think I give my parents the best gift because I give them love. They say that's all they really want. Love is the best because you can always give love, unlike rings or money. Of course those things are great, but love is better. The other thing is anybody can give love and it's not that hard. That's why I think the best gift you could give someone is love.
