Being quiet is a great quality to have because I get done with my work faster. Being quiet is also good for me because if I wasn't quiet I would be loud. I wouldn't get done with my work in time. That is why being quiet is a good quality for me to have.

Sarah McClellan, 3rd, Hilton Elementary, Mrs. Crawford

My favorite quality about myself is my eyes because they are brown like my mom's eyes. The reason I like my eyes so much is because they make me look like my mom! Everyone in my family has blue and green eyes, but not me. I have my mom's eyes and I would not want any other color.

Lynsey Blair, 7th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Brooks

One of my favorite qualities about myself would be being able to do tricks on a Pogo stick. Also, one of my other qualities would be being able to make friends. The last quality would be being quiet. Chandler Skaggs, 5th, Jonesville Middle, Mrs. Austin

I really don't have that many good qualities about myself. Like anybody else, I've got my demons. I'm not one of those people with that holier than thou syndrome who are always up on their high horse claiming to be better than everyone. I know that I'm a human being too, and I'm no more or less important than any other person; that's just my philosophy. Although I do like how I can be very entertaining to be around. Whenever I try hard enough, and you catch me at the right time, I can knock it right out of the park and have everyone laughing their heads off. Although I'm usually more successful with the more mature audience or anyone who actually gets my references. More often than not, I find people who simply are either flat out rude, or get offended because I "take it too far" and get all hostile because they have no sense of humor. I mostly just ignore that crowd as best as I can as to not start a confrontation over foolish stuff like that, and knowing how ruthless I can get when I'm angry enough, I don't want to make anyone cry, or be embarrassed. But, I digress. I try not to get like that too often, and I always try to have a good time and make the best of everything and maybe get a couple of good laughs in as well.

Lucas Wolf, 8th, Surgoinsville Middle, Mrs. Hensley

Have you ever built something out of cardboard? I have and that's why my favorite quality is my creativity. One time I got a lot of cardboard and built a Skee-ball machine. I also like to get creative in the kitchen and make candy sushi. Another way I'm creative is because I animate original drawings. This is why creativity is a wonderful quality of mine.

Max Taylor, 3rd, Hilton Elementary, Mrs. Crawford

Kerrick Mullins, 3rd, Mount Carmel Elementary, Ms. McCann

Britt Davenport, 1st, Hilton Elementary, Mrs. Light

My favorite quality is that I am funny and love making people laugh. In my opinion, you should love everything about you because you are perfect just the way you are. Do not change a thing about you!
